DRIEHAUS WELCOMES MORE THAN $450,000 FOR GREATER CINCINNATI MENTORING PROGRAMS
```

WASHINGTON, DC—Representative Steve Driehaus today welcomed the announcement by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) of a $453,935 grant for the Cincinnati Youth Collaborative (CYC). The funding will help strengthen CYC's mentoring programs.

"This is great news for the Cincinnati Youth Collaborative and a smart investment in our community. We know that mentoring programs can reduce delinquency, truancy, and drug abuse while helping our most at-risk youth get off to a good start. This funding will help CYC strengthen its mentoring services and continue its critical work," said Rep. Driehaus.

The $453,935 grant was awarded through the DOJ's Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention program. According to the DOJ, the grant will support a CYC program designed to strengthen existing community mentoring collaborations that focus on recruiting, training and supporting mentors. The project's goal is to increase positive outcomes for mentoring participants who are in contact with or at risk of involvement in juvenile delinquency, drug abuse, truancy, and other problem and high-risk behaviors.
